

Youth Minister Wanted

The Los Alamos Church of Christ is looking for a full time Youth Minister. We desire a baptized believer who is faithful to God's love and is willing to work with a team of believers to seek those in need of God and to strengthen those already committed to service. This position is open to both men and women.

The ideal candidate should meet most of the following criteria:

- has the skill to minister to youth
- would promote youth group and family unity
- would promote church growth and community outreach
- has gifts for leading worship and singing
- is capable of preaching occasionally
- has a college degree in ministry
- has previous experience in youth ministry
- has a stable marriage (if married)
- is innovative
- has excellent interpersonal skills

Job responsibilities will include:

- working with the youth group through teaching classes and leading spiritual activities
- establishing and maintaining a good rapport with teens and children
- leading youth group social activities associated with sporting events, special occasions, weekend gatherings, etc.
- assisting with developing youth ministry to ensure continuity in the congregation's programs
- communicating well with leaders, staff, and parents
- presenting periodic progress reports
- championing youth and community-outreach projects
- supporting day-to-day office activities

Who We Are:

- We are a congregation of about 80 in a community of approximately 19,000
- We believe in the priesthood of all believers, encouraging both men and women to use their gifts to serve
